

“Hiring Incentives” Workshop for Employers

8:30 a.m. - 9:30 a.m. November 12, 2010
Virginia Workforce Center - 2211 Hydraulic Road
Charlottesville

Apprenticeships – It’s more than you think. 236 occupations have already been approved. More occupations could be approved. Mr. Todd Cooke, Registered Apprenticeship Representative, Va. Dept. of Labor and Industry will answer all of your questions.

On the Job training with wage reimbursements – Save up to 50% during the training period for each eligible employee. Mr. Mike Kilpatrick, OJT Case Manager, will discuss how your next hire could save you $ on the payroll.

Internships – Opportunity for you to train a potential employee and not incur payroll expense during the internship period. Mr. Kilpatrick will discuss benefits and responsibilities.

Work Opportunity Tax Credit – New categories have recently been added. Mr. Talmadge Harris, VEC Business & Economic Development Specialist will provide information on how you can take advantage of this tax credit.

H.I.R.E. Act Tax Credit – Hurry, this is a limited window of opportunity. Deadline to participate is December 31, 2010. Ms. Laura Coburn, VEC Business & Economic Development Specialist will provide information.

To reserve your seat, email Laura.Coburn@vec.virginia.gov. Space is limited.

No charge to attend.
