New Crozet Library Open House

Thursday, February 19, 2009
4:00-6:30 p.m.

Crozet United Methodist Church Fellowship Hall
1156 Crozet Ave, Crozet

Please join Crozet Library Steering Committee members and Albemarle County staff for an open house on the conceptual design of the new Crozet library and an update on the Destination Downtown project, including the streetscape and stormwater projects. The public is invited to drop in at any point during the Open House to view the conceptual design and other materials, talk with staff and committee members, and provide feedback. Additional details about the library project and other Crozet projects can be found at www.albemarle.org/crozet.

For more information about the Open House, call the Albemarle County Community Relations Office at 434-296-5841 or email lcatin@albemarle.org.
