Figure 2.1: A compact urban form, as shown in this photo simulation, supports lively mixed use centers.

Figure 2.2: The natural and rural areas of Albemarle County are resources highly valued by County residents [County to provide original of rural area image on website]
Figure 2.3: An example of new residential development (bottom) that is compatible with existing housing (top)
Figure 2.4: A network of parallel and well connected routes creates new transportation choices.

Figure 2.5: New multimodal roads like the one in this photo simulation of the proposed Berkmar Drive Extended, will accommodate pedestrians, bicycles, and transit.
Figure 2.6: Urban parks are one of several components in a network of open spaces.

Figure 2.7: Trails can create new connections between areas on both sides of US 29.