

Community Emergency Response Training

Sponsored by:
Emergency Management

Of Albemarle County,
University of Virginia,
And Charlottesville

CERT is a national program to prepare you to respond to immediate needs
following a disaster.

This essential training for a better prepared community
is provided free.

Registration Required

New session begins September 8, 2011.

Register at:

www.CharlottesvilleCERT.org

Or Phone : 434-971-1263

You will learn the skills you need to respond to and survive an emergency.

First Responders instruct the classes.

CERT meets nine Thursdays, 6:30 p.m.—9:00 p.m.

Disaster Preparedness
Emergency Fire Suppression Disaster Medical Operations [2 sessions]
Light Search and Rescue Disaster Psychology
Terrorism
Practical Exercise
National Incident Management System

"The most empowering Class I ever took."
Jessica
CERT September 2010

"Think about it: the first people on the scene of a disaster are the ones who just happened to be there. I learned how to manage until the professional responders are deployed."

Michael
CERT January 2009