ACPD 2010 HIGHLIGHTS

Kevin Miller was recognized as ACPD's Officer of the Year.

Animal Control Officer Kim Maddox was recognized for civilian of the year.

The Traffic Unit was recognized by the Virginia Association of Chief of Police for its efforts in traffic enforcement. The Traffic Unit placed second in the state; this is the fifth year in a row that the unit has been honored by placing first or second on the state level and have been recognized nationally.

The police department was awarded a grant from the Department of Criminal Justice for its Forensics Team. This grant enabled the department to purchase quality equipment for processing and obtaining critical evidence. The EvidenceOnQ Management System has helped to streamline inventories, evidence collecting, reports and the tracking of evidence and property that is submitted for storage.

ACPD expanded the K-9 program with the addition of a female Bloodhound “LuLu”

ACPD initiated a Photosafe Program with the installation of traffic signal cameras at the 29 & Rio Road intersection.

ACPD recognized John F. Miller on his retirement after 21 years of successful service to the Police Department and the citizens of Albemarle County as Police Chief.

ACPD starts a new era of leadership with the hiring of Steve Sellers as the departments new Police Chief.
